

GWALIOR GLORY SCHOOL

Circular August'26

Classes 1 & 2

“Kindness, courage and curiosity are superpowers anyone can have.”

Dear All,

Flags are the proud symbols of countries around the world. Each national flag has its own colours, patterns and designs that tell a story about the nation's history, culture, values and other specific things. Learning about flags of the world is a great way to discover the beauty and diversity of our global family.

- Indian Flag is also called “Tiranga” as it has 3 colours – Saffron, White and Green with a navy blue Ashoka Chakra in the center.
- Nepal is the only country which has a non-quadrilateral flag. It's flag consist of two stack rectangular pennants.
- Switzerland and Vatican City are the two nations with square shaped flags.
- The national flag of Denmark is the oldest continuously used same design flag in the world.
- Five countries have placed their flags on the Moon so far; namely USA, Russia, China, India and Japan.
- The global study of flags is known as Vexillology.

*From the mountains high to the oceans wide,
India is our home, our greatest pride.
With many languages and many races,
We live together with love and grace.
We learn, we play, we dream so bright,
To guide our nation towards the light.
Hand in hand, we stand so true,
Proud Indians, both me and you!*
